

Thursday, 16th April, 2009

The international development directions of solar-thermal systmes

- 08.00 Registration (Gate II)
- 09.00 Greeting and introduction
Miklós Fráter, Project Manager, Innoterm
- 09.10 The position of the European solar thermal market
Uwe Trenkner, Secretary General, European Solar Thermal Federation (ESTIF)
- 09.45 Solar thermal heating systmes in European Union
Msc Rozi Christodoulaki, Solar Thermal Department, Center for Renewable Energy Sources (CRES)
- 10.15 EU standards by the solar thermal systems
Msc Roland Sterrer, Bsc, Arsenal Research
- 11.00 The Opening Ceremony of the RENEXPO® Central Europe
- 11.50 Introduction of the Hungarian solar combs
Pál Varga, Chairmen, Hungarian Building Engineering Association-Renewable Energy Section
- 12.30 Estimation of the solar comb's life-time
Dr. Gyula Gróf, Senior Lecturer, Budapest University of Technology and Economics
- 13.10 Lunch break and visiting the RENEXPO® Central Europe
- 14.30 New application fields by the solar thermal systems
Msc Gundula Tschernigg, Arsenal Research
- 15.00 New developed solar thermal systems for heating and cooling
Msc Panagiotis Tsekouras, Solar Thermal Department, Center for Renewable Energy Sources (CRES)
- 15.30 The Hungarian supporterpolitic by the reneable energies
József Bánfi, Mechanical Engineer, Industrial Economist, Energetic Expert
- 16.00 Roundtable-discussion, Questions
- 16.30 Résumé, afterword
Dr. Ferenc Lezsovits, Adjunct, Budapest University of Technology and Economic

Moderation: Dr. Ferenc Lezsovits, Adjunct, Budapest University of Technology and Economic

Target Groups: Planers, Engineers, Drawers, Traders, Users

Nyelv: Hungarian/English

Organizer: Innoterm Energetics Kft., European Solar Thermal Industry Federation (ESTIF)

Professional Partner: REECO Hungary Kft.
Tel.: +36-1-225-4143; Fax: +36-1-225-2145
Nemzetközi tel.: +49-7121-3016-0;
Nemzetközi fax: +49-7121-3016-100
 hungary@reeco.hu

Fees:

72 EUR/18.000 HUF

Inc. coffee break and entry to trade fair, lunch, conference materials, the study about "The Position of the Hungarian Solar Thermal Market".

Registration Required!